

On behalf of the Organising Committee of the Clan MacGillivray International Association a warm invitation is extended to all Members of the Clan to a Gathering to be held in Inverness between Wednesday 15th and Sunday 19th July 2020

To all those attending, Commander Iain MacGillivray extends a warm welcome to his family farm at Calrossie, Near Tain on Friday 17th July where he and his family will provide a fun filled and interesting day.

The Gathering will commence at the Kingsmills Hotel, Inverness on the early evening of Wednesday 15th July and after a full programme the Gathering will close with a Clan Dinner in the Kingsmills Hotel on the evening of Saturday 18th July 2020. The cost of attending the Gathering will be £275 per person to cover all meals and entertainment at the Kingsmills Hotel, transport to and from the Hotel to Culloden, Dunlichity and Dunmaglas, lunch on that day, transport to and from the Commanders Day, a Ceilidh on the evening of Friday 17th July and attendance at Inverness Highland Games on Saturday 18th July.

Those wishing to attend should email either me on MacGillivray2020@btinternet.com to confirm numbers or their Clan Commissioner if he has sent this information; a deposit of £50 per person must be paid not later than 31st May 2019. Further details including links for accommodation will be provided once a booking has been intimated.

Elizabeth N McGillivray

Joint Organiser

facebook.com/events/307437216686416/

